

STUDENT WELDERS . . . Welding and other instructional facilities of El Camino college will be open for public inspection from 7 to 10 p.m. Friday evening and from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday afternoon. Special displays have been arranged under the direction of Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction.

COOL ASSIGNMENT . . . Charging a hermetically sealed unit of an electric refrigerator are Gil Georges, a citizen of France, and Larry Prudhomme. Both are enrolled in a class in refrigeration and air conditioning at El Camino college. Facilities of the college will be open for public inspection from 7 to 10 p.m. Friday and from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Greenwood School House Broken Into

Vandals entered Greenwood Elementary School, 1500 Greenwood Ave., over the week end, it was reported by Malcolm Richland, principal. Police described the damage as "malicious mischief," relating that a window had been broken and a lock forced open for entrance, and chalk and papers scattered around classrooms.

HIGH LEVEL

No place in North Carolina's 1,224-acre Mount Mitchell state park is less than one mile above sea level, most of it much higher.

Week End OpenHouse Planned For El Camino

El Camino college will open its doors to the public this week end as it sponsors its annual open house tomorrow evening and Sunday afternoon. Campus buildings will be open for inspection tomorrow from 7 until 10 p. m. and from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday afternoon according to an announcement made by Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction. Members of the college music department will present a program of vocal and instrumental numbers at 9 p. m. Friday under the direction of Instructor R. Neil Hill. Art exhibits will be shown on the Campus center throughout the duration of the open house. Water colors, ceramics, oils, drawings, ceramic sculpturing and advertising art displays will be exhibited. Among the unusual displays planned is the agricultural exhibit of blooming chrysanthemums. Instructor Charles Luger and his classes have raised the flowers under black cover to ensure their blooming for the instructional exhibits. Plants will be offered for sale to the public, Luger explained. Twenty-five student guides will escort guests to the various areas of the campus, and members of the faculty and administrative staff will be present to answer questions of visitors. "Virtually every department will sponsor an exhibit in its own area," Dr. Harless noted. Among these will be displays in cosmetology, chemistry, physics, radio, upholstery, homemaking, and shops. Members of scholarship societies of neighboring high schools will be honored by the college faculty and members of Alpha Gamma Sigma, honorary scholarship fraternity, at an open house preview from 2 to 5 p. m. Friday. Semi-Annual Dance Scheduled by NTCIA The semi-annual dance of the North Torrance Civic Assn. will be held at the Western Club in Gardena on Friday, June 10, Helen Leichtweiss, committee chairman, announced Wednesday. A band for the dance will be announced later, and door prizes will be given. Other members of the committee are Norma Prange, Ev Carlstrom, Stewart Anderson, Jack White, and Angie Segreto. SHIPS FUEL Of the 417 vessels operating in the Great Lakes trade 361 burn coal.
